

Gudrun (given name Gudrun Gabriele Machowetz) was born in Austria. She grew up in Weitra (wood quarter), a small town in the countryside. At home she made music since she was a little girl, together with her two sisters and took singing lessons as well as lessons to play guitar, violin, piano and flute. After some years working in her mother's company, as well as spending time in England and United States, she settled in Vienna at the age of 22 and acquired a Musical diploma with distinction at the Academy of Music and performing Arts.

An international theatre workshop in Germany (Berlin/WannseeForum) and film- and theatre acting studies in Vienna shaped her skills. Appearances in several feature movies for festivals followed.

Gudrun's composers as well as her band activities remained her impassioned dedication. With her band „SheSays“, it was sealed to start a professional music career as a performing artist.
